

Ryan Petrick

Ridgeworth Roofing Co., Inc.

Ryan serves as Project Manager at Ridgeworth Roofing, running the company's CAD program, roof inspections, and estimating. He is the third generation in the family business, and has been visiting the family business since an early age. He started full time with the company after graduation, and progressed his way through the apprenticeship program prior to joining the management team.

He is currently enrolled in NRCA's Future Executive Institute and will graduate in 2017. He serves on the CRCA Trade Show Committee, following in his father and grandfather's footsteps.

Ryan and his wife Christen are proud parents to their 2 year old daughter
