JOHN LANZENDORF HONORED WITH THE CLYDE SCOTT AWARD

Hillside, Illinois - The Chicago Roofing Contractors Association (CRCA) selected John Lanzendorf as the Clyde Scott Award Recipient, presenting Lanzendorf with the award at CRCA's Annual Awards Dinner. The award, was given to Lanzendorf, "For his continued efforts to upgrade the role of the roofing contractor, for his time and talents so unselfishly given as CRCA Officer, Director and Committee Member." This is not an annual award, but given when a person deserving the award is chosen by the CRCA Awards Committee.

As the President of American Roofing, a division of Combined Roofing Services, located in West Chicago, John Lanzendorf has served the roofing industry for over 50 years. John has done everything in the roofing business from Salesman, Project Manager, Foreman, Superintendent, and President. He began volunteering his time with CRCA in 2002 with the Scholarship Committee. Since then he has also served on the Contracts & Insurance Committee and joined the Board serving as Director and Treasurer.

Headquartered in Hillside, IL, CRCA is a local trade association of roofing and waterproofing contractors in the greater Chicagoland area. Contractors, manufacturers, distributors, manufacturers' representatives, consultants and others are members of CRCA, where they come together to discuss and tackle issues important to the roofing industry. CRCA serves the greater construction, roofing and waterproofing industries in Illinois through volunteer members who donate significant amounts of time to the association.
